

WARRANTY

Beardsell Guitars warrants all of our guitars for the lifetime of the original purchaser against defects in materials or workmanship. This warranty is not transferable to secondary or later buyers. The warranty covers the quality of materials (woods, glues in joints, bridges, fret boards and other points of wood-to-wood contact) and the fit and finish of secondary components to the guitar body, neck and headstock assemblies. Sub-components such as machine heads, strings, bridge pins and electronic assemblies are not covered by the warranty and may be covered by the suppliers of the components. Also, Beardsell Guitars does not warrant guitars against cracks or splits in bodies or necks due to humidity issues. Registration is not required for customers buying directly from the the builder. Clients buying through secondary dealers can register with the builder by completing this form and hitting the submit button.
